

History - Test Your Skills

Year 5 Anglo Saxons 2

1. How does the artefact below show that there were Christians in Anglo-Saxon Britain?

1 mark

2. Christians spread their religion through missionaries. Match the missionary to their achievement.

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| St. Augustine | Built the monastery in Lindisfarne in 634 CE |
| St. Aiden | Built the monastery in Iona in 563 CE |
| St. Columba | Converted the King of Kent in 597 CE |

1 mark

3. True or false?

“The Sutton Hoo was definitely a Christian burial”

True False

1 mark

Justify your choice:

4. Name one thing that was significant about the Staffordshire Hoard.

1 mark

5. Why is the Anglo-Saxon chronicle considered an important historical document? Tick all those you believe are true.

- It is an unbiased record of Britain's past.
- It listed key events of Anglo-Saxon history.
- It was a collection of manuscripts written started at the time of Alfred the Great.
- It considered the viewpoints of different peoples and religions.

1 mark

6. Is this a primary or secondary source?

What information does this tell us about the Saxons?

2 marks

7. Justify, using two reasons, why Alfred was called 'Great'.

2 marks

8. After the battle of Edington, the Treaty of Wedmore separated England into two parts. What was this better known as?

Danegeld

Danelaw

Wergild

1 mark

/10

Total