

Art - Test Your Skills

Year 5 Figure Drawing

1. Which artist painted 'A Sunday Afternoon on the Isle of La Grande Jatte'?

- Georges Seurat
- Rembrandt
- Claude Monet

1 mark

2. What are the paintings Dutch Masters famous for?

- Loose brushstrokes
- The careful use of light
- Bright colours

1 mark

3. In a correctly proportioned adult figure, how many heads are there from the top of the head to the waist?

- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5

1 mark

4. Sketch a simple human figure with the correction proportions below.

3 marks

5. Drawing, painting and creativity. (Do not tick this. Your teacher will tick this).

- 1 mark – A figure is drawn with some correct proportions.
- 2 marks – A grouping of figures are drawn with some correct proportions.
- 3 marks – Figure or figures are drawn with correct proportions – or a grouping of figures are drawn with some landscape elements.
- 4 marks – Figures with correct proportions, and the landscape, are carefully painted and outlined with pen.

mark/s

Total