

Endpoints for Design and Technology

Year 4 - Yanomami Tile

What I know and can explain
I can name the main parts of a needle.
I can thread a needle independently.
I can tie a knot independently.
I can sew a running stitch independently.
I can sew a cross stitch independently.
I can sew a back stitch independently.
I can use visual research to generate design ideas that are relevant to a design brief.
I can design, carve and mono print my design onto Binka.
I understand what it means for a product to be aesthetically pleasing.
Higher Standard
I can ensure my sewn design compliments and continues my printed pattern.

Useful Vocabulary

back stitch

binka

brayer (roller)

cross stitch

embroidery

half cross stitch

knot

needle

needle threader

pattern

polystyrene tile

printing ink

printing plate

repeated pattern

running stitch

stitch

tessellated pattern

texture

thread

yarn